THE LANTERN.

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.
 2. T. BIGHAM, - Editor and Proprietor.
 Entered at the Postoffice at Chester, S. C., as second-class mail matter.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21, 1908.

It had been understood that Gov. Ansel would have little or no opposition for re-election, but quite a number of candidates are getting "mentioned," and some are "declaring." It is probable that Gov. Ansel will oppose himself, and we believe he should do so. If the people want prohibition, no one will be more willing than he to enforce it.

The appointment of any of the candidates for United States senator to succeed Senator Lattimer would give that candidate the inside track in the race and would be regarded by the others as an unfair advantage. We suggest therefore that Gov. Ansel appoint Gen. N. C. Butler, who served as senator for a number of years, is equipped for immediate action, has served in the army, and in war, in reconstruction troubles and in peace, deserves and would appreciate the honor, and would not desire another term. He is a graceful honor from his state, and doubtless he will be the last veteran of the war to thus honor the state with his service.

Judges Elected.

In the election for judges of the two new circuits yesterday, J. W. DeVoe of Edgemoor, received 50 votes, to 70 for C. M. Eldred, of Lexington; and S. W. G. Shipp, of Florence, received 52, to 68 for W. J. Montgomery, of Marion.

Hamilton-Abell.

Miss Kate Hamilton, daughter of Mrs. Foster Hamilton, of Columbia, and Mr. Edwin Abell, son of Mr. Robert Abell, of Lowry, were married Wednesday evening in Columbia. They came on No. 34 yesterday afternoon and went through the country to his home.

Decrease in Dispendary Sales.

The monthly report by Dispendary Auditor Wael shows a decrease of nearly $80,000 in the total sales in the various county dispendaries. The report shows that Allen county was the only county that gained in sales, the figures for December being $15,000, and for January $33,000. The figures for December are accounted for by the Christmas sales in various counties are considered, would make the increase a very large sum.

Negrees For Prohibition.

Tuskegee, Ala., Feb. 19.—The annual Tuskegee negro conference adopted resolutions advocating the temperance movement in the South and had addresses from many prominent educators of the race. J. H. Dillard, secretary of the million dollar fund for rural education of the negro, said that he believed the reactionary movement in the South had spent itself and that the relations between the two races are now improving. The prohibition resolution adopted was as follows: "The Tuskegee conference, realizing that the manufacture, sale and use of intoxicating liquor is a menace to the spiritual, moral and material life of the race, hereby puts itself on record as heartily in accord with the temperance movement for statutory prohibition that is now sweeping over the Southern States."

Give Poor Man a Chance.

Since the legislature is about to make the railroads haul us cheaper, why not pass a law to fix the price of livey carriages at fifty cents per hour, and at five dollars a month, house rent at three dollars a month, land rent at two dollars an acre, clothes at a dollar a suit, horses and buggies at ten dollars a piece, automobiles at twenty dollars, newspapers at a penny and waterworks for household use at ten cents. The poor man would have a chance. Poor Men Advocate.

Not the Hinge Boy.

Allen, February 19.—Information received from Mrs. H. H. DeVoe to the effect that the boy under arrest here was not Arthur Hingle, but Son, a son of the late Arthur Hingle, who died two years ago. The mother stated that her boy had been educated in Oklahoma. The boy has

SENATOR LATTIMER DEAD.

END CAME YESTERDAY

Funeral at Belton Today—Excerpt of House and Senate.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Senator Asbury Churchwell Lattimer, of South Carolina, died at Providence hospital at 3:15 o'clock this morning. His death was due to peritonitis following an operation for appendicitis. After the operation was performed, however, it was discovered that Senator Lattimer was not suffering from appendicitis, but a mercurial ailment, and little hope was entertained for his recovery.

FAMILY AT BELTIDE.

When the sad news, senator Lattimer's wife, four daughters and son were at his bedside. He was conscious almost to the end. Senator Lattimer spent a restless day yesterday and his condition became markedly grave early this morning. Throughout the entire night his relatives remained by his bedside, expecting the end at any moment. But he has not yet passed it, but he has evidenced a disposition to do so, and it has been amended in the senate so as to provide that the insurance commissioner shall be elected by the general assembly instead of appointed by the governor, as in the original bill. If the house does not agree to this amendment, the bill will go to a conference. Senator Blease led the fight for election by the general assembly, and the senate, at no time appeared friendly to Gov. Ansel, consented to the amendment.

The appropriation bill is also now before the senate with suggested amendments which may bring about some disagreement. The bill is usual will go to free conference. The contract labor bill is now in free conference and house not being in agreement. This committee consists of Messrs. Graydon, Bates and Sullivan from the senate, and Messrs. Cochran, Johnson, and Carey on the part of the house. These gentlemen will virtually write the farm labor law of the state, as the committee of free conference has absolutely power and unless their report is agreed to the bill falls entirely.

The various insurance bills, besides the establishing of the department of insurance, are now before the senate, having been passed by the house. The matter of insurance has been much discussed at this session, not only the door of each house but in the lobbies and the strongest lobbying of the session has been done by the insurance interests of the state. The bill to increase the pay of legislators, or rather to pay a salary of $20,000 instead of $4,000 per year, has passed the house before the senate. The joint resolution to relieve Messrs. Latta, Timmerman and Jani, state treasurers, from all liabilities to the theft of state funds from the office of the state treasurer during their incumbency has passed both houses. It was debated at length and with spirit in the house last night and passed by a vote of 78 to 18. The house has passed the bill to amend the high school act of 1907, and the amendment containing the establishment of high schools under the act to towns containing not over 1,000 inhabitants or to school districts containing not over 1,000 inhabitants.

This afternoon at four o'clock the two houses will meet in joint session to elect judges of the new circuits. The senate will elect three and the house will elect three. The candidates are C. M. Eldred of Lexington, Saluda and Edgefield and the candidates are C. M. Eldred of Lexington and J. W. Devore of Edgefield. The 12th circuit embraces the counties of Florence, Georgetown, Marion and Horry and the candidates are S. W. G. Shipp of Florence, W. J. Montgomery of Marion and C. P. Quattlebaum of Horry. The bill as it originally passed the house provided for one new circuit, but the senate added another and the house after a vote agreed to the amendment, the vote being 48 to 42. The governor signed the bill yesterday, so that the elections could be held.

The prospect now is that adjournment will be reached on Saturday night or early Sunday morning. ## COLUMBIA LETTER.

Columbia, Feb. 20.—With only three days of the session left, the house and senate have both eliminated all bills except the most important matters from their calendars and each house is now to consider the measures which the other house has already passed upon. This is the final analysis of legislative judgement.

Within the last few days many matters have been decided definitely. It may be now, if not before, safely asserted that there will be no rate legislation this year nor will any law be passed. The senate, having at different times assumed different positions on these questions, the final determination was in doubt, but it is now settled.

Neither will the department of immigration be abolished, although the house by a vote 48 to 41 passed the bill of Mr. D. L. Smith to abolish that department. The senate has gone on record as not in favor of its abolition and the Smith bill is hardly likely to get through.

The bill establishing the department of insurance, which passed the house, is now before the senate. The senate has not yet passed it, but it has evidenced a disposition to do so, and it has been amended in the senate so as to provide that the insurance commissioner shall be elected by the general assembly instead of appointed by the governor, as in the original bill. ## SHERIFF PEDEN DEAD.

SUCCESSOR TO LONG ILLNESS

Funeral Tomorrow at Cedar Shoals—The Vacant Office.

Sheriff Thomas Peden died this morning about 7 o'clock, having been confined to his room for many months. The remains will be taken to Cedar Shoals on the L. & N. train tomorrow and the burial will be at that place. The funeral service being conducted by Rev. M. J. Carls and J. H. Wilson.

Mr. Peden was taken sick with kidney trouble last August. For a while he appeared to improve and was able to go on, about, but became worse the latter part of September and was never again except when taken out for a short drive about Christmas.

The deceased was 68 years old. He was born in Ohio. He was a son of Mr. David and Mrs. Margaret Hood Peden, of the Peden's bridge neighborhood. He was married, perhaps about 1868, to Miss Sallie McCarry, of the Cedar Shoals neighborhood, and of this marriage four children survive, Joseph of Fayetteville, N. C., Miss Nancy and Messrs. Wm. H. and David W. After her death he was married to Sister, Miss Irene McCarry, who also survives.

With the exception of a few years at Taylorsville, N. C. and two years at Winnsboro, Mr. Peden's home has always been in Chester county. He moved from Bucoonville to this city in 1899, and was elected sheriff four years ago. He served through the war as sergeant of the cavalry, and in war as in peace, was faithful to duty.

Mr. Peden enjoyed the full confidence of all who knew him, being regarded as one of the best men in the county. When he was a candidate for sheriff doubt was often expressed as to his chances of success, this doubt being based upon the fact that he was "too good a man to be elected."

It is probable that the governor will be asked to appoint, to fill the vacancy, Mr. Andrew H. Strickland, brother of the deceased, who has been deputy and practically sheriff, for the last six months.

Organizing Unions.

Mr. M. S. Carroll, Farmers' Union organizer, was in town this morning. He organized a local at Curlew last night with the following officers: President, Jim L. McKown; Vice Pres., H. B. Boyd; Sec-Treas., T. G. Strickland; D. K. Strong; M. K. Brown; Conductor, R. B. McMillan; C. W. Boyd.

Messrs. A. G. Westbrook, E. H. Killian and Jim Wilson made a business trip to Chester Monday.

L. G. McLaughlin, of Edgemoor, visited the sick of this place Sabbath evening and spent the night at the home of his sister, Mrs. Nancy J. Westbrook.

Miss Margie Simpson is with her mother, Miss Agnes Simpson, of Edgemoor, who is sick with grip.

A Serious Scourge Scrape.

One Douglas, colored, was killed and one of his sons seriously wounded and another son injured on Mr. E. H. Hardin's place, six miles from Edgemoor, when negotiating a street Wednesday night. Only meagre information has been obtained and the reports are conflicting. One is that two negroes died and another mortally wounded and another is that only one died. It seems Mr. J. R. P. Gibson's deputy, Mr. Henry Gibson, went to the scene of the accident, was using force for some offense and he mistreated a boy or three times, knocked the deputy down and shot at him. The negroes made an attempt to get away. If another attempt was made Wednesday, Messrs. Gladden, Dean, Tom Hanson and others, were deputized to make the arrest. When they went to the negro home and read warrants to Hanson and his two sons for assault and battery, they refused to obey and they were taken again and the sheriff commenced, with the result as above stated. Coroner Leckie went down yesterday to take an inquest but did not get through and has gone today. None of the white men was hurt but one report says Mr. Dye has been shot in the back and is in a delicate position. Mr. Dye has been killed.
